The Daily Courant.

Monday, July 16. 1722.

London, July 16.

On Saturday arrived a Mail from Holland, and Yesterday one from France.

Malaga, June 30.

YEsterday arrived here from Alicant an English Brigantine called the Swallow, one Barton Master, who reports, that on the 27th Instant in the Evening being off Cape De Gat, he fell in and spoke with the Spanish Squadron of Men of War, which lately sailed from Cadiz, consisting of nine Ships: They were lying to, upon the Cruise in that Station against the Algerines.

Vienna, July 8. 'The Emperour and Empress set out 'the 6th Instant for Presbourg; they dined at Fischament, lay at Petronell, a Seat belonging to Count Traun, 'and made their Publick Entry on Horseback, dressed in 'Hungarian Habits the next Day at Presbourg; the Cardinal de Saxe-Zeits arrived here the 5th Instant from 'Ratisbon, he had Audience the same Day of the Emperour, and set out in the Evening for Presbourg. Advices from Belgrade say, the Turks are making extraordinary Fortifications at Niden, in which 2000 Men are 'daily employed.

Dresden, July 11. The King of Poland having dined at Pilnitz with the Prince and Princess Royal, went from thence to Grand Sedlitz, where he dined and lay one Night at General Count Wakerbaert's fine Country Seat, and set out from thence the 4th Instant for Warsaw, accompanied by Count Manteuffel and several of the Nobility; General Flemming will also set out thither in a short Time.

Paris, July 22. The last Letters from Cadiz say, that two Ships of War commanded by Don Ferdinand Chacon, sailed the 26th past from that Port, to convoy to New Spain the Marquess de Casa Fuerte, Viceroy of that Kingdom, who carries with him several new Privileges the King grants to the Inhabitants of those Countries. 8000 Quintals of Quicksilver are likewise sent on board those Ships, together with Arms of several Sorts, and Merchandize. It is assured, that the Duke of Orleans has declared lately at Table, that the King will reside here this Winter. The King has given Orders to lay out 60000 Livres, in repairing and embellishing the great Hall at Court, where he intends to hold his Bed of Justice at his Return from his Coronation. The Mareschal de Villeroy does not give any more the necessary Houshold Orders for the King's going abroad; that Office is now performed by the Duke of Bourbon. The Mareschal de Villars, who set out a Fortnight ago to one of his Seats in Normandy, went afterwards to Rouen, where the Duke of Luxembourg, Governour of the Province, treated him magnificently during the three Days the Mareschal continued there. He is expected hither this Week. It is assured, that Mademoiselle de Bourbon, Abbess of Fontevreault, is at length determined to accept the Abbacy of St. Anthony in the Fields. The Commissaries who were appointed to proceed against the Persons concerned in Designing, Engraving, Printing, and Publishing of a certain Print relating to the Pope, and also of a Libel called Philoflances, have given Judgment on that Affair, and condemned the Guilty to a Three Hours Banishment from this City, and a Fine of 3 Livres; at which a certain Minister is not at all satisfied, who expected they would have had a severer Punishment.

Letter from the Lord Viscount Townshend to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex in Quarter Sessions assembled.

Whitehall, July 4, 1722.

Gentlemen,

HIS Majesty has commanded me to signify to you his Approbation of your Endeavours for suppressing unlawful Gaming, which of late hath encreased in a most extraordinary and scandalous Manner.

His Majesty looks upon this good Work to be of such Consequence to the Morals as well as to the Fortunes of His Subjects, that he expects you will apply yourselves to it with all possible Diligence, that you will lay before Him from time to time an Account of your Proceedings, taking Particular Notice of the Difficulties and Obstructions you meet with, from whatever Quarter they may arise, and that you take Care to give to the inferiour Officers of the Peace who shall appear most active on this Occasion all fitting Countenance and Protection.

His Majesty's gracious Acceptance of the Pains you have already taken in this Service ought to be an Encouragement to you to carry it on with Unanimity and Vigour; and those who shall distinguish themselves by their Zeal in an Undertaking so acceptable to His Majesty and so necessary and useful to their Country, will thereby become more particularly entitled to His Majesty's Favour. I am, &c.

TOWNSHEND.

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having received an Anonimous Letter signed G. B. dated the 3d of July Instant, pretending to make great Discoveries of Frauds in the Revenues; Their Lordships are pleased to declare, that if the Person who wrote the said Letter will apply himself to the Secretaries of the Treasury, or either of them, and make out such his Discoveries, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement and Protection.

General-Post-Office, July 12, 1722.

Whereas the Post Boy who was bringing the Bristol Mail to London upon Wednesday Morning last between the Hours of Twelve and One a-Clock in the Morning, was set upon by one Highwayman about a Quarter of a Mile from Longford in the County of Middlesex, who after having dismounted the Boy who carried the Mail, and also another Boy who was in Company with him, bound them and tied them Back to Back and there left them bound, and afterwards rifled the Bristol Mail, and carried away all the Bags that were in it. The Person who is supposed to have committed this Robbery was afterwards seen in Comb-Warren in Surry, between Five and Six a-Clock in the Morning, with a Bag of Letters sitting upon a Vermin-Trap in the Warren, opening the Letters, but upon the Warrener's taking Notice of him, mounted his Horse and rode off, and was afterwards seen by some Persons loading of Bavines in a Wood near the Warren, of whom he enquired the way to London. The Person is described to be a pretty tall Man, with a long Visage, and red Pimples in his Face, a middle aged Man, and had on a close bodied blue Coat with brass Buttons, and over it a brown-coloured Ship Russet great Coat which hung down pretty long upon him, a light Wig tied with a black Ribbon in the Pole; the Colour of his Horse was betwixt a Bay and a Chestnut, with a bald Face, and switcht Tail, about 14 Hands high or rather under. Any Person or Persons who shall apprehend the said Highwayman who has committed this Robbery, will, upon his being Convicted, be entituled to the Reward of 200 l. published in the Gazettes, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person concerned with him as an Accomplice, shall make a Discovery of him, or of any other of his Accomplices, such Person so making the Discovery will not only be entituled to the Rewards above mentioned for each Person Convicted, but will also be entituled to a Pardon, as promised in the Gazettes by His Majesty's special Command.

All Persons possessed of Parts or Shares in the Land Security, with an Oyl Patent, may bring or send their said Shares, any Day from the Date hereof, to the two Fighting Cocks in St. George's-Fields; at which Place, the Sum of Five Pounds will be instantly paid for each Share, on their delivering them up at the same time.

Whereas two Coach Glasses were left with Wm. Sadgrith, a Barber, in King's-gate-street, in order for Sale, and it appearing the Person who left them is now in New-Prison for offering Sir John Smith's Glasses and Seats which were stole from him, which makes it strongly suspected the above Glasses are also stolen. If any Person has lost such, they may be seen at Mr. Albinal's, at the Royal Cabinet in the Strand, and the Owner may have them again, paying the Charges.

Whereas there was stole out of a Gentleman's Garden at the West End of Hampstead in Middlesex, on Friday Night the 13th Instant, the Irons of two Rolling Stones, if the Person that has bought them, or any else concerned in the said Robbery, will discover who did it, so as the Party may be convicted of the same, shall receive 3 Guineas Reward, to be paid by Mr. Hardy, Apothecary at Hampstead, or Mr. Wm. Binfield, in Woodstreet, near Cripplegate, London. There was likewise stolen at the same time, a small Quantity of Lead off a Garden Gate.

Lost or mislaid, a Note for 75 l. 14 s. un- der the Hand of Samuel Smith, dated the 2d of June, payable to Sir Thomas Seawen and Comp. one Month after Date. Whoever finds it, and will bring it to the said Sir Thomas Seawen and Comp. in Walbrook, shall have half a Guinea Reward, Payment being stopt.

There is lately come from Bristol a Ship laden with Bottles, a great Quantity of which is filled with Hot-Well Water, and is to be sold at the Hand and Apple, the lower End of Queen-street, Cheapside. The Hot-Well Water and Bottles at Six Shillings per Single Dozen, and the Bottles at Two Shillings per Dozen. N. B. The Bottles are large and London shaped, and the Water fresh and good, and sealed I. Brown.

An absolute Cure for the KING's EVIL, in all its most dreadful Circumstances by an admirable Electuary which infallibly and quickly cures that Distemper in Young or Old, tho' never so bad, and of many Years standing. It assuredly causes any Soreness of the Eyes, and all Sores, Ulcers, or Fistula's in any Part of the Body to heal speedily; and all Swellings of the Glandules or Kernels to vanish as if by Enchantment: It effectually purifies the Blood and Juices, corrects their Sharpness, strikes at the very first Principle or Cause of the Evil, perfectly destroys it Root and Branch, and entirely compleats the Cure, so as never to return again, without the least Disorder, Trouble, or Confinement, and with such Safety, so soon, and in such a miraculous Manner, that one would almost think it was done by immediate Divine Assistance; in a Thousand Experiments it has not been once known to fail. It is to be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Maydon Yard in the Minories, at 5 s. a Pot, sealed up with Directions.

The HEMORRHOIDS or PILES of any Kind, or in either Sex, absolutely cured so as not to return again; by a pleasant Specifick Electuary, now recommended by the most celebrated Physicians, as the only certain Medicine for that Indisposition in the World; for in the sharpest Pain, and most miserable Torture, it gives surprising Relief, and almost miraculous Ease: No sooner is it taken scarcely, but all manner of Uneasiness vanishes, as if by Inchantment, and the Patient becomes as perfectly well and free from Pain, as if no such Malady had ever been; and this it not only accomplishes for the present, in all Persons whatsoever, but also by totally subduing all Sharpness in the Blood and Juices, it certainly prevents any Return of the Piles for the future, so as entirely to cure that Illness, and thereby prevents Fistula's, and other direful Consequences, that cannot be too much dreaded. Hundreds of Men and Women, who had for many Years, more or less, been miserably afflicted with the Piles, have at once been perfectly cured by this great Remedy, to their no less Joy and Comfort, than Admiration. It is so safe that a sucking Child might take it without Inconvenience, for it never occasions the least Trouble or Disorder, and is so very agreeable, as not to give Distaste to the nicest Palate. Is sold only at Jacob's Coffee-house, against the Angel and Crown Tavern in Threadneedle-street, behind the Royal Exchange, at 5 s. a Pot, with Directions.
